biography

Multidisciplinary artist

Alice Teichert studied music, philosophy, visual poetry, visual arts, and printmaking in Belgium and France. She works from her studio in Port Hope, Ontario, Canada. Since 1989, she has built an international career with over 30 solo exhibitions in France, Canada, Switzerland, Germany and Australia. Known for her bold colours and layered transparencies interspersed with script-like line drawings, Teichert's paintings are noted for their holographic depth. Her works are held in many corporate, private, and public collections including the MacLaren Art Centre (Can), Global Affairs Canada, the Musée de la Ville de Valence (F) and the Museumsquartier of Lübeck (D)

A English-German edition of a monograph by Dagmar Täube, titled In)Formation - On the Philosophy and Art of Alice Teichert has recently been published by Hirmer Publishers, München, Germany (http://www.hirmerverlag.de/us/titel-3-3/in_formation-1561/)
